

YEAR TWO (2) AUTUMN ONE – WHAT WILL YOUR CHILD LEARN THIS HALF TERM?

ENGLISH

Core Texts: Stories in familiar settings. Non-Fiction postcards and Letters.

Key Question: What is fiction and what is non-fiction?

Children will also learn about Traditional poems.

Children will read and write their own version of a familiar story. They will ask questions to gain further understanding of the stories and predict the middle and ending of the story. They will continue to read daily.

MATHEMATICS

Areas children will learn this term:

- Place Value
- Partitioning
- Money especially Uk currency.
- Problem solving and reasoning
- Counting to 100 forwards and backwards
- Measuring, length and mass

SCIENCE

Key Question: what are the main differences between animals and humans?

Children will develop understanding of the human body. They will learn how animals develop and grow.

They will identify, label and match animals to their young, learn about the different group of animals, reptiles, mammals, amphibians and birds.

GEOGRAPHY: HISTORY

Geography Key Question: Why do we build tunnels?

The Water Cycle, rivers, seas and oceans and their significance in our environment and our world.

History Key Question: Who are the significant people in our lives?

Children will learn about Famous British People like Mary Seacole.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Key Question: Who is a Muslim and what do they believe?

Children will learn about Islam and what they believe about God and the examples set by Prophet Muhammad. They will look at the importance of families and communities and learn about the commonalities and differences in the celebrations. Children will share their celebrations.

PSHE

Children will be reflecting and thinking about new beginnings. They will demonstrate their understanding of the 6rs and learn how to cope when things get difficult. They will use the Zones of Regulation to understand their feelings and how they can manage them.

Children will also learn further skills from the Life Bus sessions.

ART: DESIGN & TECHNOLOGY

ART: Children will create their own self-portraits. They will use pencils to sketch and draw themselves, they will use mirrors to see their reflection. They will focus on their facial features by investigating tone, dark and light, patterns and shapes. They will learn from artist Emma Majury.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Key Question: How can I use the gymnastics skills I have learnt to perform for an audience?

Children will run, jump, throw and catch to develop their balance, agility and co-ordination.

MUSIC:- pupils will learn to sing using musical instruments and rhyme using their voices with expression. ICT children will learn to keep safe online and use Purple Mash.