

World Book Day

On Thursday 3rd March, the children at school spread much joy and excitement as they dressed up to celebrate World Book Day. The children donned their best dress-up costumes of characters from their favourite books, bringing lots of fun and colour into the School. There was an array of characters from a plethora of books, and from different historical periods, encouraging the children to embrace the World Book Day festivities whilst expanding their knowledge and igniting their passion for reading. All the children looked fantastic as we are sure you will agree!
