FREEDOM OF INFORMATION POLICY

Introduction

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) is that public authorities, including all schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is either available for you on our website to download and print off or available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information. This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

Policy Objectives

Rosedale Primary and the wider Trust is committed to offering pupils a learning experience that is rich, varied and responsive to their needs and abilities. We aim to stimulate enthusiastic and purposeful learning, based on open-minded and skillful enquiry, creative and critical thinking and generous spirit of co-operation. We use a wide range of teaching approaches to encourage the engagement, enjoyment and interest which are essential to good learning.

We have high expectations of our pupils' behaviour, attitudes to work and dress. We expect them to behave at all times in a way that reflects pride in themselves as individuals and as members of the School. We aim for continued improvement in levels of attainment and involve pupils in setting targets and monitoring their own progress, and encourage them to develop a sense of responsibility for their learning.

We strive to create a learning environment that is safe, efficient and attractive, and which reflects pride in our work. In essence, a learning environment that values our pupils and is in turn valued by them; a cohesive community both within and beyond the classroom where we aim to encourage respect for the environment. We provide opportunities for pupils to build a sense of shared responsibility for the School in which we all work and the world in which we live.

At the School, there is a culture of confidence and optimism in which effort, participation and achievement are celebrated. We believe that confidence and good results go together.

We offer awards for good work and behaviour and we celebrate pupils' achievement and contributions to the life of the School through special achievement assemblies.

We welcome parents, guardians and carers as informed and active partners in the education of their children.

This publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'.

The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into four broad topic areas:

- Prospectus – information published in the School prospectus.
- Local Advisory (Governing) Body – information published in governing body documents.
- Pupils and the curriculum – information about policies relating to pupils and the curriculum.
- Policies and procedures - information about policies that relate to the School in general.
